- 508B Of Cricketing and Alf Gover Interest
A 1961 T. H. Clark's Benefit Autograph Album, containing full team signatures of the county and some International Test teams of the 1961 season, also a loose leaf sheet of team signatures for Surrey, also two signed photographs and a letter from Alf Gover teaching a pupil at the indoor cricket school.
* Alf Gover was a well known cricketer of the 1930's winning four England Cups and taking 200 wickets in successive seasons. He is probably best known for establishing the indoor school as a major international school for cricketing expertise, with Sir Vivian Richards and Brian Lara as students. The photograph and letter are of the vendor as a young student attending the school in the 1960's.
 The South African team signatures are those of the last team to be allowed to play abroad before Apartheid.
