

- Lot 62A A swaine silver mounted riding crop c.1904.
Estimate: £50-60
- Lot 96A A preserved and mounted Thicklipped Mullet, 14 lbs 2 3/4ozs, British record, caught, St Athan, Wales, October, 1979, in a bow front display case, 91cm. wide.
Estimate: £150-200
- Lot 96B A collection of preserved exotic birds, finches and others mounted in a naturalistic setting in a glazed display case, 66cm. wide.
Estimate: £80-120
- Lot 96C A preserved and mounted Tench in glazed display case, 56cm. wide together with a preserved perch in a glazed display case, 56cm. wide.
Estimate: £100-150
- Lot 96D A preserved red squirrel contained in a glazed display case, 37cm. wide, together with a preserved bantam contained in a glazed display case, 38cm. wide.
Estimate: £30-40
- Lot 96E A preserved and mounted badger on a naturalistic base, 61cm. wide.
- Lot 96F A full mounted preserved fox on a polished wood base, 53cm. wide.
- Lot 96G A preserved red deer's head mounted on a polished wood plaque.
- Lot 352A A Third Reich Period Luftwaffe flight technical badge a Luftwaffe shoulder strap, various badges, buckles and buttons.
Estimate: £40-50
- Lot 428A Rolls Royce 'Spirit of Ecstasy' plated car mascot, 14.5cm. high mounted on a polished hardstone plinth base, total height 23cm. high.
Estimate: £200-250
- Lot 1062A Colmans Mustard: a lithographed advertising tin of rectangular outline, the front panel depicting "The Stag At Bay" by Sir Edwin Landseer, the back panel "The Wounded Hound" by Sir Edwin Landseer. 21cm. wide.
Estimate: £70-100